ANOTHER CHAPTER NEXT WEEK,

Telling the Truth.

Norman Hapgood, says the Buffalo Enquirer, was discussing American newsthese things and steer clear of making papers. "It is not enough that our papers should tell the truth," he said, "Truth telling in itself is not particularly wise nor praiseworthy.

Thus a young man called on a young lady one spring morning very early. He had his big automobile along. He wanted give the young lady a morning spin through the country

"A little girl, the young lady's niece, answered the bell. 'Is your auntie in?' said the young

'Yes, sir,' said the little girl. " "That's good. Where is she?" he went on,

"'She's upstairs,' said the little girl 'in her nighty, looking over the balustrade."

Our Version.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal. "To what do you owe your immense fortune?" inquired the Japanese tourist.

"To my dishonorable ancestors, Germany for all time to come. The height of German good manners is to in-
